

for more than just law.

Kelsey Ruscoe.

Kelsey graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 2021 with a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Arts majoring in Political Science and International Relations.

While at university, Kelsey worked at Lawfield as a Law Clerk.

Kelsey obtained a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice from the College of Law in September 2022 and was admitted as a Lawyer in Western Australia in October 2022.

Kelsey is a member of the Law Society of Western Australia.

Kelsey advises clients on a range of commercial legal problems and provides both transactional and litigation services to clients from various industries.

Since transitioning to a Graduate role in February 2022 and then a Solicitor in October 2022, Kelsey has been involved in a range of commercial matters including the following:

- Commercial disputes and litigation
- Commercial leases
- Contract reviews
- Shareholders agreements
- Sale and purchase of medium and small businesses

- Loan agreements
- Solicitor Guarantee Certificates
- Employment contracts and disputes
- Construction contracts and disputes
- Trusts
- Wills
- Enduring Power of Attorney and Enduring Power of Guardianship

Outside of work, Kelsey enjoys going to new restaurants, reading novels and springboard diving.
