

for more than just law.

Anna Dunn.

Anna received an Early Entrance Scholarship to Murdoch University and graduated in 2015 with a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology.

Anna obtained a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice from Australian National University and was admitted to practice in October 2015.

Whilst at Murdoch University, Anna participated in Murdoch University's International Law and Human Rights Program and studied at the John Knox Centre International Réformé in Geneva, Switzerland.

Anna was a part of Murdoch University's Southern Communities Advocacy Legal Education Service (SCALES) where she was involved in criminal, family and refugee law matters. Anna has volunteered at the Fremantle Community Legal Centre and has participated in their evening legal service program.

Anna is a current member of the Law Society of Western Australia and is a member of BNI Diamond Perth City.

At Lawfield, Anna provides a variety of transactional and litigation services and has appeared in the Supreme Court of Appeal, Supreme, District and Magistrates Courts.

Since joining Lawfield in October 2015, Anna has been involved in range of commercial matters including the following:

- Commercial litigation
- Commercial leases
- Retail shop leases
- PPS Registrations
- Debt recovery
- Shareholders Agreements
- Employment contracts and disputes
- Sale and purchase of medium and small businesses
- Construction contracts and disputes
- Trusts
- Deceased Estate Administration
- Family Provision Disputes
- Wills
- Enduring Power of Attorney and Enduring Power of Guardianship

Anna is Lawfield's unofficial social coordinator and thoroughly enjoys organising Lawfield's social events during the year. Outside of work, Anna enjoys spending time with family and friends in WA's Southwest region, keeping fit and checking out new cafes and restaurants in and around Perth.
